DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

Figures 1 & 2 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Applicant is noted the figures 1 and 2 should be labeled as Prior art ( see specification, pages 1-4).

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "port clocks" and "core clock" as shown in claims 1, 3, 4, 11 and 19 must be shown in the drawing or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 12, 18 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 4, 6, 11, 17, 18 and 21 of U.S.

Art Unit: 2616

Patent No. 6,816,955 B1. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1, 4, 6, 11, 17, 18 and 21 of patent discloses similar limitations as shown in claims 1, 12 and 18 including a dual port memory ( a memory device with a first port and a second port) comprising a write interface logic, read interface logic ( first and second synchronization logic devices); a multiplexer circuit ( a multiplexer logic). Thw write and read interface logics synchronize write signal, read signal ( synchronize information) to system clock signals ( core clock). The Patent does not explicitly disclose a single port memory core. It is obvious that the related art described in fig.2 of the specification that dual port memory 200 having a single port memory core 250. Therefore, it would have been obvious that the dual port memory in the Patent should have a single port memory core to synchronize clock signals between ports and clock associated wit the memory core.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 14 recites the limitation "said first frequency" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Regarding claim 14, it is not clear what are associated with said first frequency, second frequency and third frequencies ?

In claim 1, are "the port synchronization logic devices" on line 5 referred to " a first and a second port synchronization devices" on line 1 or others ?

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 19, 20 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In claim 19, the prior art does not disclose synchronizing the information between the port clocks and a core clock associated with a single-ported memory core, at the first and the second port synchronization logic devices; communicating the information from the first and second port synchronization logic devices to a port multiplexing logic that acts as a time division multiplexer (TDM) for the information; and communicating the information from the TDM to the single-ported memory core.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
